

Welcome to the Double Letter Quiz

NN

Judging by last year's tremendous response and correct answers it would seem that the internet is getting some hammer! So, we may have to make the clues more devious. Or, we could just have some fun and leave it alone.

The prize this year is a meal for 4 at Nico's Italian restaurant, a great place to while away the hours eating and drinking.

Just a reminder all the answers begin with NN as in Nil Nil. We still get so many cracking entries from those who have yet to grasp the rules we are starting to think it's who's wrong. The best so far was the FF competition. The clue Famous Footballer - elicited the answer Bobby Charlton!
